

Event Manager Project:

The screenshot shows a web browser window for the "Event Manager" project at localhost:3000. The header features the "Event Manager" logo in blue, followed by "About" and "Support" links, and two buttons: "Log In or Sign up" and "Pay Here". Below the header is a large banner image of a tennis match on a green court with a city skyline in the background. A black overlay on the banner displays the text "Special Olympics World Games Berlin 2023" and a timer showing "2 DAYS 23 HRS 59 MINS 53 SECS". At the bottom of the page are two navigation tabs: "NEWS" on the left and "EVENTS" on the right.

SANTA CLAUS CUP 2022

Information

Santa Claus Cup (informally called in Hungarian: Mikulás Kupa) had initially been a weekend competition for the youngest categories, but throughout the years it has expanded into a one-week event featuring the figure skaters and ice dancers of each age group, considered one of the biggest youth competitions in Europe today.

In the recent years, more than 400 skaters have come to the event, representing 40 or even more countries from South America to Asia. Many top-tier champions of the world competed at the Santa Claus Cup, including ice dancers Gabriella Papadakis and Guillaume Cizeron who have since become Olympic silver medalists, four-time World champions and five-time consecutive European champions, as well as the Latvian Deniss Vasiljevs (ranked 6th in the world and 4th in the European Championships) and the Belgian Loena Hendrickx (ranked 5th in the European Championships).

Location

Budapest, Hungary, at the Gyakorló Jégsarnok.

Special Olympics World Games Berlin 2023

Information

With 13 international delegations travelling to Berlin, the National Games became an occasion to compete socialize and prepare for the most keenly awaited Special Olympics event of the last few years: Special Olympics World Games Berlin 2023.

From 19 to 24 June 2022, 4,000 athletes and Unified partners from across Germany and beyond competed in 20 different sports disciplines varying from the most established ones like athletics, football, and basketball to those still in development such as judo and triathlon.
